Ark City woman arrested on suspicion of aggravated assault

Olivo accused of throwing hammer at husband; striking, damaging vehicle

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (October 16, 2015) — An Arkansas City woman was arrested Thursday by the Arkansas City Police Department after allegedly throwing a hammer at her husband, striking a car.

Tracy Elizabeth Olivo, 24, was arrested on suspicion of aggravated assault, criminal damage to property and disorderly conduct.

She was transported to and booked into the Cowley County Jail in Winfield in lieu of $11,500 bond through Cowley County District Court in Arkansas City. Olivo since has posted bond and been released.

Police were dispatched about 3:22 p.m. to a residence at 1218 N. Summit St. for a report of a domestic disturbance. They learned Olivo had been in a dispute with her common-law husband.

When he tried to leave, she began throwing items in his direction, including shoes, plastic chairs and a hammer. The hammer struck the hood of a vehicle, about 2 to 3 feet from where her husband stood.

A defendant's guilt or innocence is to be determined by a court of law.
