Ark City man arrested on suspicion of violating bond conditions

Shine was arrested for battery-domestic violence, ordered to have no contact

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (July 26, 2018) — The Arkansas City Police Department arrested an Arkansas City man Thursday on suspicion of violating Cowley County District Court bond conditions.

Michael Kevin Shine, 33, was transported to and booked into the Cowley County Jail in Winfield with no bond. He remained in custody at the time of this release.

Shine previously had been arrested June 19 on suspicion of battery-domestic violence. Part of his bond conditions in that case was to have no contact with the alleged victim, an Arkansas City female.

Officers made contact Thursday with Shine in the 900 block of Wingate. They observed Shine in contact with the alleged female victim in the prior case.

He was taken into custody without incident for violating the conditions of his bond in that case.

A defendant's guilt or innocence is to be determined by a court of law.
